House Resolution No. 62

by deleting the language "now, therefore," and substituting the word "and"; and by adding the following preamble clauses immediately preceding the first resolving clause:

WHEREAS, in the interest of protecting our great nation, President Donald Trump has both reduced the number of refugees accepted by the United States each year and chosen to screen those refugees entering our country with a heightened level of scrutiny; and

WHEREAS, President Trump should be highly commended for taking such bold initiatives on refugee resettlement; and

WHEREAS, this body believes that increased national security is necessary to protect all Tennesseans, and, as a result of such sound national policies, some organizations such as World Relief Nashville have become obsolete due to a decreased workload; now, therefore,
